Chicago — Mint Director Philip N. Diehl today announced that the Mint has increased its production estimate for the 9-Coin Proof Set by at least 500,000 sets, and has raised the order limit by another 5 sets per household. Previous purchasers of two sets will be able to buy an additional five sets.

"The limit we placed on the 1999 Proof Sets has had the desired effect," said Diehl, speaking at the American Numismatic Association's 1999 World's Fair of Money. "Over the past two months, we've given all our customers a fair shot at getting at least two 9-Coin Proof Sets, and now we are responding to customers who have asked for an opportunity to buy more sets."

"We are aiming at total production of 2.5 million 9-Coin sets to fulfill the extraordinary demand from the collectors and the general public generated by the 50 State Quarters Program."

"In order to produce 500,000 additional proof sets, we are pushing back the release of the 1999 Silver Proof Set by one month until October. Our estimated production run for the Silver Proof Set will be 800,000 sets, with an order limit of 2 per household. In order to accomplish this, we will not offer a separate 5-coin silver proof quarters set as we originally planned."

"I want to reiterate to collectors that all our efforts have been focused on the challenge of making as many Proof Sets available as possible," said Diehl. "Last year, we sold approximately 2.1 million 5-Coin Proof Sets. To accommodate demand for the numismatic sets containing the 50 State Quarters, we are now planning to manufacture the equivalent of some 5 million 5-Coin Proof Sets. Even so, we do not expect to meet all demand for the proof set."

The new order limit on the 9-Coin Proof Set allows customers who have already ordered two sets to now order an additional five 9-Coin Proof Sets. New customers now placing orders will also be limited to five sets per household.

The 9-Coin 1999 Proof Set is $19.95, and the 5-Coin State Quarters Proof Set $13.95, plus a shipping fee of $3.95 per order. A limit of 2 sets per household continues in effect for the 5-Coin State Quarters Proof Set. All sets will be shipped by priority mail in customized security containers.

The 9-Coin Proof Set contains a Lincoln cent, Jefferson nickel, Roosevelt dime, and Kennedy half dollar in one sealed presentation case, and the first five 50 State Quarters honoring Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Georgia, and Connecticut packaged in a separate case. The 5-Coin State Quarters Proof Set may be purchased separately.

The Mint's annual proof set is a collection of each coin made for circulation minted using highly polished dies. Produced at the San Francisco Mint, each coin bears the S mint mark and is struck at least twice to ensure fine detail in a frosted cameo image on a mirrored background. The sealed cases containing the coins are inserted into a specially printed sleeve and accompanied by a Certificate of Authenticity.
